THERE is not an atom of truth in the statement that the people like to get humbugged. The very man to whom the saying is credited made his success upon entirely different lines by giving "the best show on earth." What the people seek in merchandise is the best value obtainable for their money. They get it here and that's the secret of our success.

THE PEOPLE AROUSED

By a Number of New Cases of Smallpox Yesterday.

COUNCIL CALLED TO MEET TO-NIGHT

To Elect a Health Officer—Dr. Jenson's Views in Regard to Accepting the Position—The Situation is Graver Just at Present than it has Been at Any Time in the Past.

Yesterday five new cases of smallpox were officially reported to the city health officer. There were two reported earlier in the week, and one existed in town before that, so that there are now eight cases, exclusive of one in the smallpox hospital. The cases reported yesterday were all south of the creek, one being at 4706 East street, one at No. 8 Alley 18, one at 2332 Main street, one at Alley 20 and Market street, and one near the corner of East and Twenty-sixth streets. In addition to these there was a case of sickness reported which it was suspected might prove to be smallpox, though it has not yet developed sufficiently to tell certainly.

There were circumstances in connection with some of the cases which added to the natural alarm caused by the sudden outbreak, the worst in one day yet. One case, it was said, had been under treatment since Sunday, and only diagnosed as smallpox yesterday. In the meantime there had been many people in the sick room. One of the patients was at the State Fair on Thursday, and yesterday she was declared to have smallpox in a peculiarly malignant form. One other patient served milk to customers until within a day or two.

When the cases were reported Health Officer Walden at once quarantined all the houses, put guards on duty and put up yellow flags. Last evening the mayor ordered a meeting of council for this evening, to take action on the resignation of Dr. Walden, elect his successor and take such other action in regard to the smallpox situation as might seem proper.

The general inquiry has been over since Dr. S. L. Jenson was nominated for the position of health officer by the Republican caucus. Will he accept? The INTELLIGENCER learned indirectly, but reliably, last evening, that he would take the office under these conditions: That the salary of $1,000 a year continue, and he be paid $100 a month additional for the next four months. In addition, he thinks Dr. Walden was entitled to and will recover from the city the special fees for attending cases which he charged and council refused to pay; and if he should recover them Dr. Jenson would expect similar compensation.

The business men of the city are aroused to the danger of the situation, and those heard to speak on the subject last night declared that it would be an outrage to let any money consideration stand for an instant in the way of prompt steps to secure the efficiency of the health department. The people of the city might easily lose more every day for some time to come than the total sum possibly at stake. The situation has got beyond a point where money ought to weigh in the balance against the public health.

Stolen Property Recovered.

On Thursday a lady residing in the Fifth ward had a pair of diamond earrings valued at $125 stolen from her home. She notified the chief of police. Suspicion was directed to a certain person, and yesterday Lieut. Ingram recovered the earrings. They were especially valued because given to the owner by a sister now dead. Owing to the peculiar circumstances there will be no prosecution.

Lieut. Ingram also recovered a sum of money out of which a man had been swindled at the fair by a "tout." This was one of the few cases in which the game succeeded, and it did not pay the operator in the end.

The Fifth Street Church out to it.

Members of the Fifth (East) street M. E. church ask the INTELLIGENCER to state that their church has no connection with the coming emancipation celebration, nor was the use of its name in that connection authorized. The colored citizens generally were not consulted in regard to the arrangements, they say, but Wayman A. M. E. church and its pastor made all the arrangements and expect all the benefits, to which way of celebrating those gentlemen object.

Good Show at the Grand.

Another large house assembled at the Grand last night to see the second production in this city of Julia Walter's new play "A Money Order," and as was the case the night before, the audience was perfectly satisfied with what they saw. The scenery and costumes used in the play are all new and original.

The regular Saturday matinee will be given this afternoon, and the engagement of "A Money Order" will close to-night. Seats at the box office.

In Squire Gillespie's Court.

Carl Fretzer was arraigned before Squire Gillespie last night and fined $1 and costs for profanity and required to give bond in $50 to keep the peace for a year. Joseph Harvey was up on the same charges. He was also fined $1 and costs for swearing, which he paid, and the hearing on the peace warrant was set for 2 p. m. to-day.

Miss Heston Dead.

Miss Harriet Heston, who was so painfully burned at the home of her niece, on the Island, several days ago, has since been sinking gradually, and at noon yesterday death put an end to her sufferings. The funeral will take place from the City Hospital at 2 o'clock, the interment being at the Peninsular cemetery.

The chronic grumbler still lives, but there are less cases of chronic indigestion and Dyspepsia than formerly. The fact is so many people in the west have taken Simmons Liver Regulator that they are now cured of these ills. And a great multitude are now taking Simmons Liver Regulator for the same troubles and they'll soon be cured. "It is the best medicine."—Mrs. E. Raine, Baltimore, Md.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

By Typographical Union No. 79, of Wheeling, W. Va.,

TO THE MEMORY OF JAMES SIMS.

Typographical Union No. 79 loses one of its most valued members in the death of James Sims, who died Saturday, August 31, 1895, in the 35th year of his age.

James Sims was respected and loved by every member of our fraternity. He joined Typographical Union No. 79 at the conclusion of his apprenticeship and remained an active member of the organization until the time of his demise. His personal popularity was such that the highest offices within the gift of the Union were bestowed upon him, and he filled every position to which he was chosen with credit to himself and honor to the organization.

To those who knew him best, the name of James Sims was a synonym of all that is pure and good and honorable. Though he made no profession of orthodox Christianity, his life was full of events that marked him as possessing the material elements of a true Christian. He was noble in character, honorable in all his dealings, charitable to those in distress, and devoted to the cause of his fellow-craftsmen.

To his parents, his brothers and sisters, and to all of his relatives and family connections, we express heartfelt sympathy. May they be comforted by the conviction that he has surrendered the temporary trials, troubles and tribulations of earth to assume the eternal blessings of heaven.
